Tickets

Passengers will receive tickets in the following way (unless specified otherwise):

- Booked 7 days or less - Tickets will be available for collection at the Purser's Office on board Waverley when you sail
- Booked 8 or more days before sailing – tickets will be sent by post (please let us know if you are away from home)

Please keep your tickets safe, as they will be collected at the end of your cruise when you disembark. Each passenger should surrender their own ticket.

If you are a customer outside of the UK, you will collect your tickets on board at the Purser's Office.

Departure Point

Make sure you are familiar with the departure point of the ship – if in doubt check the departure points link within our website waverleyexcursions.co.uk ('Plan your Cruise' > 'Departure Points') or call 0141 243 2224.

Please be at your departure point to board the ship at least 10 minutes before the departure time on both the outward and return legs. Boarding closes 5 minutes before departure on outward and return journeys. Gangways are usually open at least 30 minutes before departure at Waverley's first port of call.

Catering

There is a range of eating and drinking options aboard Waverley for passengers to enjoy.

Waverley's Dining Saloon, situated on the Main Deck is open throughout your cruise offering Hot breakfast rolls until 11am. From 12 noon, a selection of Soups, Sandwiches & Snacks and full meals are available. Hot drinks, soft drinks and cakes are also available.

The Caledonia Tea Bar on the Promenade Deck offers a range of hot and cold drinks, soup, sandwiches, snacks, cakes, and ice cream. The Jeanie Deans Lounge on the Main Deck offers a relaxing atmosphere with excellent views of the passing scenery. A selection of hot and cold drinks is available as well as stronger refreshments.

Shopping

No cruise on Waverley is complete without a visit to the on-board Souvenir Shop to pick up your exclusive memento of your time aboard the last seagoing paddle steamer in the World.

There is a wide range of tempting gifts on offer so everyone can find their perfect Waverley memento including clothing, books, homewares, confectionery, and postcards. Every purchase from our shop helps support Waverley. You can even send a postcard using the Victorian postbox.

Waverley is owned by a Registered Charity (SC005832) and operated on a 'not-for-profit' basis. Every purchase made aboard Waverley helps ensure her continued operation.

Safety Information for Passengers

The safety and wellbeing of our passengers and crew is our highest priority. Please take care when boarding and when moving around the ship and listen for tannoy announcements: Information relevant to your sailing, safety and onboard services will be relayed throughout the day by the Purser.

Useful Information

- Even in summer it may get chilly when sailing so bring along a sweater or jacket. Sensible footwear is advisable.
- Please take care when moving onto or from stairways and over the step provided at doorways. Hold onto the handrail whilst going up or downstairs. Stairways on Waverley are steep.
- Please note that bags and clothing should not be left unattended on seats – crew will remove these if necessary.
- Smoking and vaping or using e-cigarettes is only permitted on the open Promenade Deck. We would ask you to take the wind direction and comfort of other passengers into consideration.
